Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

From May 8. to May 15. 1735.

L O N D O N, Feb. 19.

FROM Holland 'tis advised, That General Wallis has sent Part of his Troops into the Ferrarese and Bolognese, for their better Subsistence: That 800 Recruits were already arrived from Germany, and that the Imperial Army will be this Spring 70,000 strong.

From Vienna, That Count Konigsfeg was preparing to set out for Italy; and Prince Eugene departs about the Middle of March for the Rhine; that both the Imperial Armies would be more numerous than last Year; that on the Rhine being to be reinforced with 10,000 Saxons, which are said to be already in march.

The French make great Motions on the Rhine, and seem still to have a Design to open the Campaign with the Siege of old Brisac or Friburg; however the Imperialists are taking all possible Precautions to prevent the Designs of the Enemy.

Feb. 20. The French have brought the Bridge of Boats which they had at Kunninghen to Fort Mortier, upon an Arm of the Rhine over against old Brisac, which gives some Alarm to that Garrison, and the People of the open Country, for fear that the Enemy should pass over there, and take up their Quarters in the Brisgow: However the Imperialists have an Eye on their Motions, and Part of the Imperial Troops which were in the black Forest have already begun their March towards the Rhine.

Feb. 21. The last Advices from Dantzick, mention that General Lascei had begun his March with a great Body of Russian Troops to the Side of Cracow, to oblige the Troops of King Stanislaus by Force to submit to King Augustus, in Case the Treaty for an Accommodation, which is now on the Carpet, has not the desired Effect.

Other Accounts say, that the Polish Troops lately attempted to make an Irruption into Silesia, but failed in their Enterprize, the Russian and Saxon Troops which were on those Frontiers having put themselves in march to oppose their Design.

The 14th Inst. the Duke of Holstein established a new Order of Knighthood, call'd, The Order of St. Anne, of which himself is Grand Master, and has made several new Knights, whom he has invested with that Title.

They talk at Liege, that the Elector of Bavaria has brought in a Reckoning of 100,000 Rixdollars, for Damages done by the Imperial Troops in their marching through his Country last Campaign; and that the Treaty of Accommodation between the Courts of Vienna and Munich is not so near a Conclusion as some Advices have mentioned.

The King of Prussia, they say from Cleves, being perfectly recovered, has resumed the Administration of publick Affairs.

The Elector Palatine is said to be so dangerously ill, that his Life is despaired of.

Frankfort, Feb. 20. The French are working with the utmost Diligence to finish the Fort which they have built on the other Side of the Rhine, over against the Neckerau, to prevent the Imperialists passing that River. They have also planted with Cannon the Lines which they have made between Neustatt and Worms, which Dispositions make it judged that their Design is to act only defensively on that Side, and to employ the greatest Part of their Forces in other Parts.

Cologne, Feb. 22. We learn from Munich, that Count Colleredo is soon expected there in Quality of Minister Plenipotentiary from the Emperor, to put the last Hand to the Treaty which is said to be on the Carpet between the Courts of Vienna and Bavaria.

From the upper Rhine, Feb. 11. They say, that the Mortality among the Troops is become as violent at Nancy as in Alsace, the Palatinate, Zweybrucken and upon the Moselle, where there dies 12 or 15 Persons a Day. The Country is in a manner depopulated by the Mortality and the Calamities of War. The Imperialists have already filled their Magazines along the Necker.

Vienna,

Vienna, Feb. 11. Some Days ago arrived an Express from Silesia, dispatched by General Biron, with Advice that the Russian Troops were approaching towards those Quarters. 53 Quintals of Flour has been sent into Italy for the subsistence of our Army there. They say that General Wallis has extended his Army in the Bolonese, and cast three Bridges on the Panaro; that he has possessed himself of Finale and San Felice, and that his Design is to dispute the Entry of the Spaniards into Lombardy.

King Augustus sent a Polish Lord to Thorn, who is returned back to Warlaw, and reports, That the Primate declared to him, that it was impossible for him to retract his Word given to Stanislaus, but that he promises never more to meddle in Affairs in any Manner on one Side or on the other.

Dresden, Feb. 5. The King of Prussia has entirely recovered his Strength. It is assured that the Polish Party opposing our Elector, has demanded a Suspension of Arms, in Order to treat of an Accommodation. The advanced Guard of the Muscovite Troops, designed for the Service of the Emperor, is already entered into Silesia. 12,000 Saxons are also to take the Rout from Bohemia, to join those Troops.

Cremona, Feb. 18. Yesterday Morning 50 Hussars, 50 Horse, and 3 Companies of Grenadiers, which were to be joined by 5 others from different Quarters, are marched out, upon Advice that the Enemy had a Design to pass the Oglio, and make a Foraging on this Side. We learn from Sicily, that they wait but for the Arrival there of the King of Naples, to give an assault to the Citadel of Messina.

New-York, May 12. On the 5th Inst. Arrived here the Ship Albany Capt. Bryant from London, from whence she took her Departure the first Day of March last; the Brigantine Thomas, Capt. Stephens, and the Ship Beaver, Capt. Smith, sailed thence some Days before, yet they all came out of the Channel with the same Wind; as did Capt. Shepherdson for Boston.
